

11th November 2006

News

Jade Schaeffer wins 2007 Pre-Qualifying School: Le Fonti GC, ITALY by LET

Jade Schaeffer of France

(GC Le Fonti, Italy – Saturday 11th November 2006) – Jade Schaeffer of France (pictured) won the Ladies European Tour's Pre-Qualifying School at Le Fonti GC, in Castel San Pietro Terme, Bologna, Italy.

She fended off a strong challenge from players including Louise Stahle, Melodie Bourdy of France and Italy's Anna Rossi.

The top 43 players and ties from the 72-hole tournament will now head to Stage II, Final Qualifying, from 22-25th November at La Cala in Spain, where they will join those already exempt to make a field of 90 players (and ties) at Stage II, Final Qualifying.

From there, a minimum of twenty-five players will obtain full playing privileges for the 2007 Ladies European Tour.

For the final results please see the Tour's

Information Centre.